C.G.I.T. ELECT OFFICERS

The C. G. I. T. have again started on another year's work, election of officers being the most important item taken up at Tuesday's meeting. The following officers were elected: President, Dorothy McMillan; vice-president, Jean Walker; secretary, Jackie Walker; and treasurer, Viva Warden.

So far there are fifteen names on this year's membership list. Doris Foote, Irma Warden, Gwen Wilson, and Inez Burns form the program committee for the month of October. Mrs. Jeanne McMillan is the new leader.

Meetings will be held on Tuesday evenings of each week, in the annex of the United Church.

MANY PRIZES AWARDED AT SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY

Those who attended the rally service of the Sexsmith United Church Sunday school enjoyed a glimpse of the work so ably carried on by the superintendent, Mrs. Warden, and her staff of teachers this past year. Large graduating classes passed through the gates to higher grades.

Twenty-two Sunday school members received prizes, given by the day school and Mr. and Mrs. Deive, for perfect attendance from January to June. Eleven members received a prize for perfect church attendance at the same time.

The Sunday school prizes winners are as follows: Dorothy Baker, Amy Baker, Dorothy McMillan, Margaret McMillan, Viva Warden, Ellen Sumner, Pearl Hart, Mary Warren, Jean Warren, Nellie Enns, Dolphine Brown, Agathe Enns, Shirley McMillan, Viola Macroe, Robert Macleod, Buster Brown, Ted Meun, Harold Olson, Donald McNaughton, Tommy Macleod, Ronald Olson, and Albert Blight.

SEXSMITH LOCAL PARTS

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron White were Sunday visitors at the home, Mr. White having charge of the evening service in the United Church.

Mrs. Ganev and Mrs. R. Roberts attended the O. E. S. banquet party given in the Palace Cafe, Grande Prairie, in honor of Mrs. Lundy, Provincial Grand Mistress.

Miss Ann Fraser arrived in Sexsmith after experiencing a "delightful" trip by car part way through the Slave Lake district before deciding that the train would be a more certain way of travelling. Miss Fraser will assist in Dr. Dunbar's dental office.

Mrs. W. Shand and daughter returned on Tuesday's train after spending a three months' visit in London, Ontario, and eastern points. Mrs. Umbach also returned by the same train from Edmonton, where she had been visiting for the past few weeks.

"Limehouse Blues" will be shown at the Grand, Sexsmith, on Friday and Saturday of this week, with George Hatt, Jean Parker, and the Chinese actresses, Ann May Wong, in the cast. The setting is laid in Chinatown of London, England. This will be well worth seeing.

Do not forget the big novelty dance at Kirsin Hall on Friday, October 10, with the Prairie Orchestra providing the music.

EAST SEXSMITH SOCIAL CREDIT GROUP HOLDS SOCIAL MEETING

The East Sexsmith Social Credit Group met at the home of their chairman, Mr. Ray Pickering, on Saturday, October 3. After the business of the meeting was over a social evening was held, and the members wish to take this opportunity to thank their host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Pickering, for the splendid hospitality shown.

ANTIQUE DISPLAY AT L. A. TEA AND SALE VERY INTERESTING

At the Ladies' Aid tea and sale the antique display, under the charge of Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Roberts, was well supplied with articles rare and of great interest. Hand-woven cushions of Norway, blankets from Mexico, old-fashioned gowns dear to the heart of a grandmother, Hapsin lace collars and crochet work, and many dishes, table covers, and quilts of olden days were on display. But of most interest to the youngsters were the dolls. Hand-made dolls dressed as bride and groom.

LITTLE SMOKY

LITTLE SMOKY, Sept. 28.—On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Pete Cunningham and young son paid a visit to the parental home of the former.

Mrs. S. T. Brown and some of the children were also visitors in the settlement on Sunday.

On Saturday evening, September 10, the Carpenter family were pleasantly surprised by an unexpected visit from Joe Sears, an old Saskatchewan friend. Joe was accompanied by two friends from Drumheller, where he now resides. I don't believe I had better write their personal opinion of our Peace River highways, they having spent the previous night stuck in a mudhole along by the lake.

It seems to keep a lot of the settlement men busy going to town to look for work when the sun happens to shine and then coming back when it rains, which it usually does as soon as they get there.

TEEPÉE CREEK

TEEPÉE CREEK, Sept. 30.—Hunting seems to be the order of the day. Mr. Thomas and Mr. Jory after the geese and Mr. Maxwell after the ducks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Fink were Sunday visitors at Mr. Colin Frazer's.

Mrs. D. Rohme's daughter from Colinton is here visiting, coming in on last Friday's train.

Mr. Behms started threshing last Sunday, the first after the snow storm, but the rain didn't let him thresh long.

We are glad to know little Harry Glenenden is well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell were Sunday visitors at North Kinsman, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stenke.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Norman were visiting at Mrs. Norman's of North Kinsman.

Mr. B. Joslin of Riverton and his two friends were Saturday evening guests at Joe Love's.

Mrs. L. M. Love spent last Sunday afternoon at her son's, Mr. Harold Love.

WATINO NEWS

WATINO, Oct. 5.—Threshing is well under way. Some is a little tough, but the weather is drying. Gasoline seems to be the main hold-up these days, but the good railroad will bring some in.

Mrs. H. and Mrs. J. Weigan were visitors in town at the week-end.

Mrs. C. Johnson spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Phillips.

The school has been properly fumigated and school will begin again this week.

The epidemics of whooping cough and scarlet fever do not seem to be spreading.

Mrs. A. Williams was taken to the hospital last week. The community wish her a speedy recovery.

Miss Phew of Tanteng spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Wortman.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Thompson grew some nice watermelons, one weighing about seven pounds.

SEEN AND HEARD

Steve Galligan looking for threshers. Wm. Wortman making rush trips to the country.

Carl Johnson wishing he had an extension on the shotgun.

Frank Phillips wishing gas wasn't so scarce.

Clude Smith and Ross McLennan looking for some good strong coffee.

HIGH PRAIRIE

HIGH PRAIRIE, Oct. 5.—The young men of this district, encouraged by a few days of dry weather, have again started to the north and west in hopes of a good run of threshing.

The following drivers and Blueys are pointed out by the High Prairie boys.

FORCED FROM CAMP BY BIG BLACK BEAR

Frank Goudreau, caretaker of the timber berth south of town, has been forced from his camp near Simon's on the Peace River, by a huge black bear which ripped open three sides of the tent, scattered flour and beans in all directions and wrought havoc in general.

The bear had a well-beaten path to the camp and in one instance stole a pound of butter from before the tent. Three men were present and even the contents of a double-barrelled shotgun failed to discourage the visitor.

WOLVES DO DAMAGE, TOO

Interlopers coming from out of the bush by the great gray wolves and increasing numbers of black bears. On the Smythe farm, north of High Prairie, a snipe wolf killed and partly devoured a large spring calf and has been seen repeatedly very near barn.

Peter Asker is determined to keep his chickens penned up at all times to avoid coyotes from carrying them away.

GIVES GOOD ADDRESS AT SOCIAL CREDIT MEETING

Despite rainy weather and muddy roads, a goodly crowd of forty people attended the Social Credit meeting September 25 to meet Dr. Desrosiers of McLaughlin, who delivered an interesting address on Social Credit and the new economic laws recently passed in Canada.

Dr. Desrosiers expounded a new conception of the high aims and practical wisdom shown by the Albert government in the treatment of the debt problems of the province. The doctor's talk was well received by all present.

Following the meeting lunch was served and the ladies' singing was enjoyed until the small hours of morning.

Desrosiers proceeded from High Prairie to Grouard, Jossard and other points, where he had been in view of the Social Credit organizations.

The next meeting of Social Credit for the No. 1 will be held in High Prairie at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Olton, Oct. 8, at 8:30 p.m.

CARAVAN 5, S. COMPLETES GOOD YEAR'S WORK

The West Prairie Caravan Sunday School completed a most successful year's work on Sunday, October 4, when a thanksgiving service was given by Rev. Linford and prizes were given for the "Life of Christ" note books made by each child.

The house was decorated for the thanksgiving service with lovely yellow pumpkins, golden wheat and ears of pale green hop vines.

Mrs. E. E. distributed the beautiful prizes given the children by Bishop Sheehan.

For the note books, which were a success beyond all expectations, prizes were given each child.

Leila Randall, primary teacher, gave gifts to thirty-two little ones who had said their prayers faithfully, and then came the great surprise—a lovely treat of nuts and candy for each of the sixty pupils from Miss Eva Hasell, who started this Sunday school in 1920 and is greatly loved by all the children.

Each family received a book, "Stories of the Bible for Mothers to Tell Their Children," to read and study during the winter months.

The next activities of the Caravan Sunday School will be a Halloween party, October 31, and a Christmas tree and concert at Yule-tide.

THRESHING IN FULL SWING

Threshing is now in full swing, after a very bad spell of snow and rainy weather. While many report good yields, some are disappointing. The Chemainus, west of the Peace, reports wheat running about 18 to 20 bushels per acre and oats 30 to 35 bushels per acre.

ASPEN GLEN AUTO CAMP NEWS

ASPEN GLEN AUTO CAMP, Oct. 5.—Bridges has attended the efforts of all who tried to negotiate the Peace River Highway most of the time for many days. Not that the road is bad all that time at this point, but to get by the huge section east of Slave Lake. Talk of woe are the rule.

Complete Jasper Highway, past a highway through to Goldfields. It is painful to see in what small esteem the all-star settlers of Peace River area is held—his road may remain as it is.

Rush of potato harvest, and all vegetables make up for the absence of crop callers. About 425 bushels per acre was the potato yield. Bourgeois yields are reported on every hand.

Coming from Lloydminster, Sask., to this country was A. C. Thorpe.

Loaded with household effects, E. S. Kehr and Stanley Kehr of Vulcan were on their way to locate in Grande Prairie area. A brother, Marvin Kehr, lives four miles north of the Prairie.

E. Ady and Chester Hitz of Peace, Sask., despaired of earning harvest and continued rain and were homeward bound when the sky cleared. They caught a ride back to work when all that night and the next day it rained.

THURSDAY WENT AWAY BRING RESULTS

BELLOY NEWS

BELLOY, Oct. 5.—Mr. R. Gilmour went to Edmonton last week to spend the winter and, according to word received, he is feeling much better.

Mr. Delmer Paul of Grande Prairie was a business visitor in Belloy last week.

Mrs. E. Stauffer and small daughter, Ruth, were visitors in Grande Prairie on Tuesday last.

Chris Bankhead, Henry Fortier and J. C. Ferguson were business visitors to Grande Prairie Friday.

Threshing operations started in earnest on Monday morning after the long wet spell. J. N. Ferguson beginning on A. D. Robertson's field of Howard and George McDonald on Ira Gilmour's farm. According to reports, both have a good sample of wheat.

Misses Mary and Clara Rouleau were Peace visitors on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Person on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Stauffer and family were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Bolduc.

Work has been completed on the Belloy-Peoria road for the present owing to rain and inclement weather.

Mr. Justin Sinkewich had the misfortune to get stuck with a falling tree while working on the Belloy-Peoria road and received a painful laceration around the right ear and forehead.

Pedestrian traffic congested the Belloy road on Monday as the local boys trudged their weary way to their jobs on the threshing outfits.

Mrs. C. Hude of Peoria spent Monday shopping in Belloy.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT, "BY RIPLEY"

Home "Believe it or not" doughnuts from Mrs. Stauffer.

TUPPER CREEK

TUPPER CREEK, Oct. 5.—Mrs. Brunning and Mrs. Gardner visited Mrs. Cavill on Sunday afternoon. They were sorry to say they found her very poorly.

The Tupper Valley Institute held their monthly meeting on Saturday, October 3. Mrs. (Dr.) Watson made it very interesting by a talk on the activities of the convention held in Vancouver in August. At the close of the meeting an enjoyable tea was served by Mrs. Erickson and Mrs. Miller.

The Dental Clinic was very busy at the South Swan Lake School last week, when the children of the community and district had their teeth attended to.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dow were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Erickson on Sunday.

(Last Week's News)

TUPPER CREEK, B.C., Oct. 29.—Mrs. Aubrey and daughter and Miss Gilling visited Mrs. Schaffner on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilmour visited Mr. and Mrs. Westley Paynter and children visited Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Dow on Sunday.

Very glad to report Rose Marie Austin is improving.

Arnold Dickson is a visitor at Tupper.

SEEN AND HEARD

Why did the wheel come off Westley's carriage? Overloaded with ladies?

Clarence bringing home the bacon. Bud and Laurie camping by the river.

Bud getting a haircut.

Stella in love with the police dog. Will playing the Victrola.

Vera and Sis falling into the creek.

RIO GRANDE NEWS

RIO GRANDE, Oct. 5.—Guess it's about time we made an appearance, but news seems to have been more than scarce. Threshing has been held on several times and that appears to be the main topic of the day. However, the weather looks to be cleared up at present and all outfit are ready to start again.

We are very sorry to report that Mrs. F. Smith has been very poorly of late, but hope she will take a turn for the better soon.

Miss Annie Kinderwaker of LaGrange is staying with her sister, Mrs. R. Jacobs, and attending school at Carleton Place.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sherk of Buffalo visited at the Ramsey home on Sunday last.

PROSPERITY AT THE CORNER

Things are looking up around the corner. Joe Barrett has purchased a new truck and is going in for hauling grain in a big way.

And what was that streak coming down the road the other day? Oh, that was Lance Dowd with his new speed tractor. How fast was he travelling? He passed at least one truck on the way home, so judge for yourself.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Mr. Borden had a narrow escape lately attempting to ford the river at Kenny's crossing when his horse ran into a stone and upset, throwing him into the water. How ever, he managed to get out with nothing but a bad soaking and a few shivers broken out of the buggy.

TO HOLD BEAN SUPPER

A bean supper will be held on Friday, October 30, in the parish hall at 8:30 p.m.

During the evening a quilt will be very interesting to the society.

A dance will follow in the community hall. First class music.

WEMBLEY NEWS

HOLD MEETING TO FORM BOY SCOUT TROOP

WEMBLEY, Oct. 5.—A meeting was called for Monday evening, October 5, in the school, of all parents and adults interested in the formation of a Boy Scout troop. While for various reasons there was not a large attendance, the following business was transacted:

Rev. Wm. J. Huston was chosen as chairman of the meeting and Carson Geddes as secretary.

A representative citizens' committee was elected to sponsor scouting in the town, consisting of R. A. Bunyan, chairman, Carson Geddes, secretary, Mrs. Finch, J. Archer, and Wm. J. Huston.

The time of the first meeting was set for Friday, October 9, at 7 p.m. in the school. All boys in their twelfth year and up to eighteen years are invited to attend.

The secretary was instructed to have the Scout troop duly registered at headquarters.

The meeting favored the appointment of Mr. R. McLaughlin as Scoutmaster and Rev. A. F. LeDuc as Assistant Scoutmaster.

HAZELMERE NEWS

HAZELMERE, Oct. 5.—Mrs. Williams has returned from a short visit to Vancouver.

Mrs. A. H. Walker gave a miscellaneous shower at her home this week in honor of Mrs. H. Dalgleish, a recent bride. Jean received many beautiful presents. We all wish Bert and Jean much happiness, and welcome Jean as a neighbor.

Threshing started out here, but the rain came and every body wondering when we will ever get started again.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Shields is in hospital with appendicitis. We all wish him a speedy recovery.

"Wagtail Brown" will soon be coming back from his second hunting party.

Mrs. A. W. Dalgleish is in Grande Prairie with Mrs. Kerr. We hope she is feeling better.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Use Your Camera for Other Hobbies

An amateur photographer-entomologist had fun making this picture of a "Grasshopper Night Club" (note the fan dancer). He used amateur equipment. It was a time exposure with a 25-cent floodlight for illumination.

HAVE you another hobby besides your camera? If so, why not introduce them to each other and double the pleasure? Why not make photographic souvenirs of the changes in your garden, your antique collection, the growth of your miniature railroad, your new ship models, or what have you?

We know a man whose other hobby is entomology—bug-hunting. He gets a tremendous lot of fun photographing his insect specimens.

Some of his pictures of these tiny subjects are remarkable. The most surprising thing about them is that they were made with the simple apparatus used by the amateur photographer. Not only does he make serious "portraits" of individual insects, but, having a flare for the dramatic and the amusing, he photographs groups of them theatrically posed to represent the goings on of human beings, as in the picture of the grasshopper night club above; or it may be a June-bug wedding, a tumble-bug football game, a spider spouse hunting a graveyard, grasshoppers playing leapfrog—he finds the subject possibilities are endless. The pictures he displays are, of course, enlargements.

You don't have to be an entomologist to make pictures like this yourself, if you, or some one for you, will but collect the insects. Here's what he does:

He builds a "set," a Hollywood, to fit into an imaginary box 15 inches long, 10 wide and 12 high, sometimes using fine grass, small stones, twigs, etc., for scenery. Admitting that he has not yet been able to persuade his insect actors to play leapfrog or otherwise perform at his bidding, he has them chloroformed by the druggist from whom he buys his films; then with quick-drying household cement he mounts them on his stage in the poses he wants.

To light the scene he finds a single floodlight bulb in a reflector is effective. The light should be about two feet from the set, placed high for simulating daylight or low in front for a dramatic effect. Stop the camera lens down to f8, put on a portrait attachment and then photograph your 15 by 10 by 12-inch scene close up, according to instructions with the attachment. Fine grained panchromatic film is to be preferred for sparkling results in enlarging. Exposures will vary with the scene; so, until experience has been gained, three or four exposures (say 2, 4 and 8 seconds) had better be made and the best one chosen for enlargement.

Our entomologist-camerasist says you will have so much fun making these pictures that, even if you don't care to become an entomologist, an ambition to become a theatrical producer will surely have to be curbed.

JOHN VAN GUILDER

The SNAPSHOT GUILD
THE MAGIC OF FILTERS

The best cloud effects are obtained by using a yellow filter over the lens. A medium yellow filter, K-2, was used for the picture above, taken with a shutter speed of 1/100 second, aperture, f.8. A lighter yellow filter, K-1, caught the clouds in the right hand picture at 1/25 at f.11.

WITH all conditions seemingly perfect for a glorious landscape picture, how does it sometimes happen that these beautiful clouds are scarcely noticeable in the print and the distant hills just barely visible? Maybe because when we took the picture we did not use a small enough lens opening, but even that would not always be the answer.

The failure is more likely due to the fact that we did not use a filter, that magical little gadget of colored gelatine fixed between glass discs, which, when placed over the lens, changes the effect on the film of the different rays of the spectrum.

Just what is the property in a filter that so cleverly captures the beauty of clouds and helps to bring out distant detail? It is its color that makes the difference and generally yellow filters are used. The reason is that in photography the invisible ultra-violet ray of the spectrum and the violet and blue rays do most of the recording of images, and on all types of film this effect tends to predominate regardless of variation in the sensitivity of different types to different colors. Yellow, of a certain quality, in a filter will contract these rays, holding them back and letting the other rays do their work on the film without interference.

Clouds and blue sky both are rich in ultra-violet, violet and blue. So, if we put over our lens a yellow filter to hold these rays back, the other rays will do the work and the clouds will be distinguished from the sky. They will appear whiter than the sky. Strange as it may seem, clouds also contain a certain amount of green and orange rays. So, if we use a film which is not very sensitive to the orange and green rays, (the chrome type) the contrast between clouds and sky will be emphasized.

A yellow filter also makes grass and the leaves of trees photograph lighter instead of appearing black. It also performs another valuable function. It gives sharper detail to distant objects by cutting through haze, which has an excess of blue light. Also in taking pictures of flowers, or of indoor furnishings, a filter enables us to achieve correct tone contrasts.

There are five yellow filters suitable for amateur use, each performing somewhat differently. Among them the K-2, which is a medium yellow, gives the best general color correction with the ordinary and the chrome type of film, and practically full correction with the panchromatic and panchromatic film. Exposure with a filter must be increased, depending on the density of the color. Instructions furnished with each filter tell just how to use it.

If you have never tried a filter, put a K-1 or K-2 over your lens some sunny day when there are tumbling white clouds over the horizon. You will be surprised at the difference it makes.

Beaver Lodge...

Recently an enlightening and very instructive club exhibit was displayed in the window of a local store. The secretary, Mr. J. H. Crossley, horticulturist at the Experimental Station here, who arranged the exhibit, prepared some interesting displays dealing with the care of roses, their planting, cutting and preparation for winter, etc. With the exhibit were announced the awards of the club competitions.

Features at the exhibit were the prizes which the club won at the Capitol Rose Show, held in Edmonton, August 11. With twelve roses entered in this show, the Beaver Lodge club won a first prize, a second, and a third. One of the interesting exhibits at this show was the specially constructed refrigerator case made by Mr. Crossley, in which the roses were transported the 430 miles to Edmonton. By using this case roses cut in Beaver Lodge Saturday evening and shown in Edmonton the following Monday morning were able to successfully compete against freshly cut roses.

in that city. The club was specially congratulated by Mr. Wilson, sponsor of the show.

No small part of the success of the Beaver Lodge Rose Club is due to the interest and support of local flower enthusiasts. However, to give credit where it is due, the formation of the club and the very creditable showing it has made has been through the untiring effort of Mr. Crossley, the secretary. With him originated the idea of the rose club, and to him Beaver Lodge owes this added beauty to its gardens. To spend an hour with him at the Sub-Station is to have a little of the intense interest he has in the culture of flowers. He has spent many hours this summer advising and assisting those interested in roses. To him the community is indebted for his vision and his perseverance.

Sixteen Barbers

An apprenticeship under a competent barber before he will be permitted to continue in the business. Later those in B class will be given an opportunity of getting into the A class by taking another examination. It is understood that a price code will be put into effect in the near future in the barber trade.

Only those trades that ask for a support of the government.

A fee of five dollars is charged for the examination. Two chairs were employed and, as no time was to be lost, people were invited to have a haircut and shave free of charge.

One man, after looking into the barber shop and seeing so many barbers, delivered himself as follows: "Oh, I see. This is a barber college. Excuse me!" and he made his way along the street.

The following took the examinations under the Tradesmen Qualification for Barbering:
Grande Prairie—Walter Medlock, Lee Strong, Frank Henigan, Milo G. Grubbs, Oliver Ireland, E. H. B. Sessmith—Lawrence P. Truham, James Welch.

Wembley—H. P. Rollin.
Vancouver—Harvey Sheedy, Alex. Soudoukoff.
Beaver Lodge—Frank Phillips, Fred Hamell.

Hythe—Wm. Diddow.
Hythe—T. P. Mint.
Spirit River—D. Goulet.

CAPITOL

JEANETTE McDONALD AND NELSON EDDY TRIUMPH IN MUSICAL "ROSE MARIE"

Few pictures could equal the choice of the Capitol Theatre management for a superb program to entertain the many visiting teachers and theatre patrons of the district as "Rose Marie," showing in Grande Prairie during the Teachers' Convention next week, October 16-17.

This Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production features Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, in a hand some story replete with haunting music from this all-time stage success. The picture is a natural background of surpassing beauty in the Sierra Nevada Mountains of California.

Miss MacDonald plays the name role, an opera star who travels disguised into the wilds in search of her dissolute brother, a criminal from justice.

Nelson Eddy portrays Sergeant Bruce, as fine a "Mountie" as ever rode a horse. Against the odds, the criminal to justice, there is the thrust of personal duty when these two meet and fall in love.

The musical numbers are brilliantly staged and brilliantly sung. One of them, the Tolson Pole sequence, is peopled by more than a thousand performers. In its elaborate effects, it will go on record as one of the most thrilling scenes ever brought to the screen.

"THE NITWITS" IN ROUGH COMEDY OUTWIT MURDER

It used to be "Set a Thief to catch a Thief." Now "The Nitwits" will tell the Thief.

Best Wheeler and Robert Woolsey are sold to exemplify this variation of the age-old adage in their newest comedy, "The Nitwits," showing at the Capitol Theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The boys are now cast as eager counter proprietors with sleuthing propensities. Woolsey invents a lie detecting machine which shocks a confession out of the most stalwart of the district.

Har. Wheeler writes songs with murder themes as an avocation. An opportunity to put their fads to practical use comes when they attempt to solve a blackmailing plot which is behind "The Nitwits."

An extortionist operating as "The Black Widow" is terrorizing the city and has slain two men. Wheeler's sweetheart, played by ravishing Betty Grable, is accused when she's found with the murder weapon.

Murder in My Heart, "The Black Widow" Will Get You. If You Don't Watch Out, and "You Opened My Eyes" are the three melodramas in "The Nitwits" which will thrill and thrill with the whistling and singing public.

Fred Keating, Miss Grable, Evelyn Brent and Erik Rhodes are the featured cast as possible suspects. George Stevens directed this RKO Radio Picture.

"BILLIE" SHARPE HAS NARROW ESCAPE WHEN HIT BY GRAIN TRUCK

Little "Billie" Sharpe, three-year-old son of Wm. Sharpe, M.A., had a narrow escape early Thursday forenoon when he was slightly bumped by a truck driven by a young man named Pever, who was bringing in grain from the west.

The little chap, who was pulling a small wagon, had wandered out on the street close to the corner opposite the Imperial Bank. Pever slowed down to take the corner and did not see the little chap until the truck was almost putting him down.

Putting him down on the brakes, the driver managed to stop the car just as the front bumper touched the child. Apart from a few scratches the boy was unharmed.

Pever walked to Mr. Sharpe that he was partially blinded by the sun while making the turn and did not see the child at that time.
